GATHERED TOGETHER!

The risen Jesus is in our midst when we are “gathered together” in His name. He is in our midst even when we confront sinful divisions among us. Will the community of the church experience sinful division, member against member? Yes. How do we handle such division? By coming together in His name rather than pitting ourselves against one another in our own name, we handle such a division. Community— being one in mind and heart— arises from our union with the risen Jesus. Copyright, Living Liturgy 2017

SUMMER GOODBYE!

Many of you will be returning to your winter homes soon, and many of you have already made the summer exodus to your winter residencies. Please know that you are important to us, and we were so blessed by your presence in the Northern Points Cluster this summer. We are always so grateful, and we will continue to pray for you and your families. We look forward to seeing you next summer. For those of you who will remain here for another Adirondack fall and winter, we look forward to seeing you next week. Let us continue to build our faith, love, and fellowship!

With the onset of cooler weather and the leaves beginning their transformation into brilliant colors, we bid a fond and loving adieu to our Hague Family. We look with great anticipation to a new beginning in May.

SEPTEMBER 11, 2001

Let us remember the victims, families, and first responders on that fateful September 11th. Let us continue to pray for them and for our country.
